The pretrial scheduling conference may be conducted by the Judge or the Magistrate as the Court shall determine. All counsel of record or parties not represented by counsel are required to attend and shall have full authority to enter into a binding case management order. At least 48 hours prior to the conference, all parties or their counsel shall submit to the Court and serve upon opposing parties or counsel a progress sheet in the form attached hereto.

At the conclusion of the scheduling conference, a case management order shall be prepared and filed by the Court. This order shall address all items listed above and shall be binding upon all parties in the case. (If any new parties are added, a further scheduling conference may be set and a new case management order may be prepared and will supersede any prior order.)

EXCEPTIONS

Within 90 days after a case is filed, the Court shall review said cases and determine if service has been obtained or if parties are in default for answer or other pleading. In the event service has not been completed or parties are in default, an appropriate order shall be prepared and sent to counsel of record requesting that appropriate action be taken within 14 days or good cause shown why action should not be taken or the case will be dismissed by the Court for failure to prosecute.

Court appointees will be paid a reasonable and necessary fee with consideration given to the factors contained in Rule 1.5 of the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct, the Ohio Revised Code and the Local Rules of Court relating to fees.

A continuance will not be granted for conflict by reason of assignments of one counsel or other in another court except for good cause shown where the attorney can prove that he had no way of knowing of the conflict sufficiently in advance of the trial date to obtain competent counsel to substitute for him in the trial of the case assigned, or for other good cause shown in which the Court believes in the interest of justice the trial must be continued.

The Court will endeavor to notify counsel for alternate cases not later than 24 hours before the trial time that the alternate case will or will not be heard on said date. However, the purpose of assigning cases as alternates is to utilize the courtroom and to get cases tried and the Court reserves the prerogative of requiring alternate cases to be ready for trial if it appears to the Court that there is a strong possibility that the principal case will at the last moment be settled, dismissed or continued.

- 15.04 Trial Briefs: When a case has been given a firm trial date, each attorney representing a party thereto shall file with the Court for the Court's personal use, a trial brief, no less than 14 days before the trial, with contents as required below.

- (i) Any complaint, counterclaim, or other affirmative relief pleading may be dismissed without prejudice for lack of prosecution if a party seeking such affirmative relief through its complaint, counterclaim or other affirmative relief pleading does not file a trial brief within the time limit prescribed herein at said party's costs. In the event of jury trial, any jury costs incurred by the county may be assessed against the dismissed party.

- 16.03 Applications for default judgment shall otherwise be considered and ruled upon by the Court in the manner provided in Ohio Civil Rule 55.

Prior to commencement of said hearing, counsel shall indicate and the entry of judgment shall show that a trial by jury was waived and that the matter was submitted for decision by the Court. If the party seeking the judgment is desirous of a trial by jury, this must be indicated to the Court as set forth in the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure or as otherwise provided by law.
- 16.05 Relief from any judgment shall be sought pursuant to Civil Rule 60.

RULE 17: Cognovits

- 17.02 The pleadings on a cognovit note action shall include the allegations pertaining to venue and jurisdiction of this Court.
- 17.03 It is further provided that the original cognovit note may be removed from the permanent depository provided by the Clerk only upon Court order for good cause shown, and the Clerk will be directed to make such a notation upon his or her permanent record of notes of the date or said order together with the journal and page where said order is journalized.

RULE 18: Journal Entries - Other Than Domestic

- 18.01 All journal entries shall in the caption of the case set forth a short description of that which the journal entry accomplishes, grants or decides, which description shall be typed in the docket of the Court by the Clerk of Courts as the Court's docket entry, unless a prior docket entry on the subject has been filed.
- 18.02 The attorney in whose favor the decision was made, shall within fourteen (14) days prepare the proper entry and submit it to counsel for the adverse party who shall approve or reject the same within seven days after the receipt thereof. entry with appropriate notation to the Court for approval. If the prevailing party does not prepare an entry within the seven day period, opposing counsel may forthwith present an entry to the Court for approval. If counsel are unable to agree upon an entry, they shall confer with the Judge, and if agreement cannot be reached after such conference, the Judge shall prepare and enter the proper entry.

- 18.03 Journal entry forms provided by the Clerk may also be used as a docket entry in an appropriate situation, but the use of a docket entry is discouraged, the better practice being the use of the short description in the caption.

GUERNSEY COUNTY PARENTING SCHEDULE FOR CHILDREN BORN DURING MARRIAGE

Effective July 1, 2010

Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code §3109.04, the Court must consider the best interest of the child when establishing a parenting order. The Court further finds that as it is generally in the best interest of the child(ren) to enjoy a continued meaningful relationship and companionship with both parents on a consistent and frequent basis, the presumption is that parents should share the time equally. Therefore the Court adopts the following parenting schedule which results in no less than 40% parenting time for the nonresidential parent. It is the affirmative duty of the Parent exercising physical custody of the child to make certain that the child goes for all parenting time periods with the other parent.

Therefore, IT IS ORDERED that the following parenting schedule is the order of the court in domestic relations cases involving minor children, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or good cause is shown for a variance from this order.

/signed/
JUDGE DANIEL G. PADDEN

/signed/
JUDGE DAVID B. BENNETT

WEEKLY PARENTING TIME: (Note: RP=residential parent; NRP=nonresidential parent)
Except during summer break, the NRP shall have the following parenting time over a two week period:
(Note: Children should be fed before being returned.)

- alternating weekends from Friday @ 6 pm to Monday @ 6 pm;
- Followed by Thursday @ 6 pm to Friday @ 6 pm
- Followed by Monday @ 6 pm to Tuesday @ 6 pm.

HOLIDAYS: The following holidays take priority over weekly parenting time.

Holiday:	Time:	Odd years:	Even years:
Martin Luther King Day	Sun@6 to Mon@6	Father	Mother
President's Day	Sun@6 to Mon@6	Father	Mother
Easter	Sat@6 to Sun@6	Mother	Father
Memorial Day	Sun@6 to Mon@6	Father	Mother
July 4 th	7/4@9amto7/5@6pm	Mother	Father
Labor Day	Sun@6 to Mon@6	Father	Mother
Halloween(Beggar's Night)	5:30pm-8:30pm	Mother	Father
Thanksgiving	Wed@6pm-Fri@6pm	Mother	Father
Mother's Day	From 9am to 9pm	Mother	Mother
Father's Day	From 9am to 9pm	Father	Father
Child's Birthday	From 9am to 9pm	Mother	Father
Christmas Eve	12/23@9pm to 12/24@9pm	Mother	Father
Christmas Day	12/24@9pm to 12/28@6pm	Father	Mother
New Year's Eve	12/28@6pm to 1/1@6pm	Mother	Father

SUMMER BREAK: The summer schedule shall begin the first Friday that the NRP has the child after school recesses in the school district where the child attends or would attend if school age. Parties will then alternate parenting time with the child(ren) from week to week exchanging on Friday @ 6 pm to Friday @ 6 pm. The week shall be uninterrupted by the other parties parenting time unless agreed to by both parties. Each parent must schedule their vacations during their parenting time unless their vacation time is mandatory then parties shall exchange a week to accommodate the vacation time. The alternating weeks shall continue until the end of the NRP's week prior to school starting.

TRANSPORTATION: Parties shall share transportation equally. The parent exercising parenting time shall pick up the children at the parent's respective residence unless otherwise agreed to by the parents or ordered by the court. If circumstances prevent a parent from personally providing transportation, another responsible adult, such as a grandparent or stepparent, may provide transportation and watch the child for a short period of time.

DUTY TO WAIT: Neither party shall be required to wait longer than 30 minutes for the other party to pick up the child. A parent more than 30 minutes late at the beginning of companionship shall forfeit that day unless they have previously notified the other parent at least 1 hour in advance. The lost day shall not be made up.

CANCELLATION: If either parent cannot exercise parenting time, 24 hour notice must be given to the other parent and any additional daycare expense will be the responsibility of the parent who failed to pick up. The lost time is forfeited.

RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL: Parenting time does not mean picking up the children and then leaving them with someone else; therefore, if circumstances require a parent to be away overnight, the other parent should first be asked to care for the child, if they cannot, then a third party may be contacted.

CHILD'S ILLNESS: Because parenting includes the responsibility to care for the child during periods of illness, as well as during periods of health, parenting time should not ordinarily be canceled because of the child's illness. However, 24 hour notice should be given to the other parent, if possible, so that appropriate plans can be made. If the child's illness is so severe as to require parenting time to be cancelled, the time shall be rescheduled within 14 days.

MEDICATION: If the child is taking medication (prescription or non-prescription) upon the advice of a physician, the RP shall send with the child sufficient medication to last the entire parenting time period; written instructions for the administration of the medication, and the name and telephone number of the physician or other appropriate medical care provider. Absent extraordinary circumstances, the NRP shall administer the medication to the child according to the RP's written instructions and shall return any unused medication to the RP at the end of the parenting time period.

TRAVEL ITINERARY: If traveling out of town with the children for a holiday or vacation period, the traveling parent shall provide 48 hour notice and an itinerary to the other parent. The itinerary shall include travel route, destination and a number where the party can be reached in case of emergency.

CLOTHING, etc.: The RP shall provide clothing for the child's use during the NRP's parenting time. The clothing shall be appropriate to the season and in sufficient quantity. The NRP shall return the clothing provided by the RP at the end of the parenting time. If the duration of the NRP parenting time exceeds two overnights, the NRP is expected to launder or clean the child's clothing as needed. Diapers, formula, bottles, etc., for the child's use during parenting time is the responsibility of the parent exercising parenting time. However, the RP shall provide diapers and formula for the evening that the child is picked up.

SCHOOL WORK: The NRP shall provide adequate time for the child to study and complete homework assignments, even if the completion of homework interferes with the parent's plans for the child. The RP is responsible for providing the NRP with information about the homework assignments.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES: Recognizing the developmental benefit of participating in age appropriate activities, the child should be permitted to participate in one extracurricular activity, school related or otherwise, per season, regardless of which parent is exercising parenting time. The parents shall consult with each other about the scheduling of extracurricular activities. The parent exercising parenting time when an extracurricular activity is scheduled shall provide the child's transportation to the activity. Each parent shall provide the other parent with a schedule of all extracurricular activities, and the name, address, and telephone number of the activity leader. The parent who is not exercising parenting time when an activity occurs is entitled to attend and participate in the activity to the same extent the other parent is entitled to attend and participate in the activity.

COMMUNICATION BETWEEN PARENTS: Parents shall communicate directly with each other about matters concerning the children. Parents may use email or text messaging if necessary to avoid conflict. Each parent shall provide the other parent with his or her current residence address, mailing address, telephone number and email address and immediately notify the other parent of any changes in that information.

MODIFICATION/MEDIATION: Parents may informally modify the parenting order by agreement of both parties. Before filing any motion before the court, parties shall attempt to resolve any disputes related to parenting issues by mediation.

RELOCATION NOTICE: If a parent intends to relocate his or her residence and the relocation increases the distance from the other parent's home by more than 30 miles, the relocating parent shall first obtain a modified parenting plan that accommodates the increased distance and travel time and expense. If either parent intends to relocate, the parent shall immediately file a written relocation notice with the court unless otherwise ordered. (See Ex I, attached hereto.)

RECORDS ACCESS: Subject to Ohio Revised Code §3125.16 and §3319.321(F), the NRP is entitled to access any record related to the child under the same terms and conditions that access is provided to the RP. NOTICE TO KEEPER OF RECORDS: Any keeper of a record who knowingly fails to comply with this order or with Ohio Revised Code §3109.051 is in Contempt of Court.

DAY CARE CENTER ACCESS: The NRP shall have access, in accordance with Ohio Revised Code §5104.011, to any child day care center attended by the child under the same terms and conditions that access is provided to the RP.

SCHOOL ACTIVITY ACCESS: Subject to Ohio Revised Code §3319.321(F), the NRP shall have access to any student activity involving the child under the same terms and conditions that access is provided to the residential parent. NOTICE TO SCHOOL OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYEES: Any school official or employee who knowingly fails to comply with this order or with Ohio Revised Code §3109.051(J) is in Contempt of Court.

- (a) “Mediation” means any process in which a mediator facilitates communication and negotiation between the parties to assist them in reaching a voluntary agreement regarding their dispute.
- (b) “Mediator” means an individual who conducts a mediation.
- (c) “Mediation Communication” means a statement, whether oral, in a record, verbal or nonverbal, that occurs during a mediation or is made for purposes of considering, conducting, participating in, initiating, continuing, or reconvening a mediation or retaining a mediator.
- (d) “Nonparty participant” means a person other than a party or mediator that participates in a mediation.

(2) Cases Eligible for Mediation

- (a) General. The court has discretion to encourage parties to use mediation in any civil action filed in this court. A case may be submitted to mediation as provided in this rule. The court may issue an order on its own motion, upon the motion of counsel, upon the request of a party, or upon referral by the mediator.
- (b) Exceptions. Mediation is prohibited in the following:
 - (i) As an alternative to the prosecution or adjudication of domestic violence;
 - (ii) In determining whether to grant, modify, or terminate a protection order;
 - (iii) In determining the terms and conditions of a protection order;
 - (iv) In determining the penalty for violation of a protection order.

(c) Nothing in this division shall prohibit the use of mediation in a subsequent divorce or custody case, even though that case may result in the termination of the provisions of a protection order; or in a juvenile court delinquency case, even though the case involves juvenile-perpetrated domestic violence.

(3) Confidentiality

Except as provided in sections 121.22 and 149.43 of the Revised Code, mediation communications are confidential to the extent agreed by the parties or provided by other sections of the Revised Code or rules adopted under any section of the Revised Code. Parties desiring confidentiality of mediation communications shall advise the mediator as soon as practical and all mediation participants shall execute any confidentiality agreement prior to the start of mediation.

By participating in mediation, a nonparty participant, as defined by R.C. 2710.01(D), submits to the Court's jurisdiction to the extent necessary for enforcement of this rule. Any nonparty participant shall have the rights and duties under this rule as are attributed to parties, except that no evidence privilege shall be expanded.

(4) Referral to Resources

The court assignment commissioner shall maintain resources for mediation parties, including victims and suspected victims of domestic violence, encouraging appropriate referrals to legal counsel and other support services such as Children Services, domestic violence prevention, counseling, substance abuse and mental health services.

(5) Mediator Training and Education

A mediator shall meet the qualifications of and comply with all training requirements of Sup.R. 16.23 and adopted pursuant to Sup.R. 16.22 governing mediators and mediation.

(6) Mediator Selection and Assignment

The following methods may be used to determine the mediator for the case:

- (a) The court may assign a court mediator to mediate
- (b) The court may randomly assign a mediator to the case from the court's roster of approved mediators
- (c) Specific appointments may be made by the court taking into consideration the qualifications, skills, expertise, and caseload of the mediator in addition to the type, complexity and requirements of the case
- (d) Parties may select a mediator from the court roster, if any
- (e) Parties may request leave to select a mediator without guidance from the court. The court shall not be responsible for the quality of a mediator selected by the parties without guidance from the court and who does not meet the qualifications, education and training requirements set forth in section (5) above.

(7) Procedures

In accordance with all applicable provisions of this rule, if a case is deemed appropriate by the court for mediation, mediation may be scheduled.

A mediator may meet with the parties individually prior to bringing the parties together for any reason including, but not limited to, further screening. A mediator may schedule multiple mediation sessions, if necessary and mutually acceptable for the resolution of the issues in part or in their entirety.

A party opposed to either the referral or the appointed mediator must file a written objection with the court within seven days of receiving notice of the referral or provider and explain the reasons for any opposition.

(8) Party/Nonparty Participation

Parties to informal cases such as pre-filing or diversion may voluntarily attend mediation sessions.

Parties who are ordered into mediation in formal cases shall attend scheduled mediation sessions. The court may order parties to return to mediation at any time in formal cases.

If counsel of any party to the mediation becomes aware of the identity of a person or entity whose consent is required to resolve the dispute, but has not yet been joined as a party in the pleadings, they shall promptly inform the mediator as well as the assigned judge or magistrate.

If the opposing parties to any case are 1) related by blood, adoption, or marriage; 2) have resided in a common residence, or 3) have known or alleged domestic violence at any time prior to or during the mediation, then the parties and their counsel have a duty to disclose such information to the mediator and have duty to participate in any screening required by the court.

By participating in mediation a nonparty participant, as defined by R.C. 2710.01(D), agrees to be bound by this rule and submits to the court's jurisdiction to the extent necessary for enforcement of this rule. Any nonparty participant shall have the rights and duties under this rule attributed to parties except as provided by R.C. 2710.03(B) (3) and 2710.04(A) (2).

(9) Termination

If the mediator determines that further mediation efforts would be of no benefit to the parties, he or she shall inform all interested parties and the court that the mediation is terminated using the procedure required by this court.

(10) Stay of Proceedings

Upon referral of a case to mediation, the court may elect to stay all filing deadlines for up to 60 days. The clerk of courts shall not accept for filing any documents while a case is in mediation unless expressly permitted by these rules or by court order.

Only the following documents may be filed while a mediation stay is in effect:

1. Motion to lift the mediation stay;
2. Response to a motion to lift mediation stay;
3. Motion or Stipulation to Dismiss the case;
4. Notice related to counsel

(11) Continuances

It is the policy of this court to determine matters in a timely way. Continuances of scheduled mediations shall be granted only for good cause shown after a mutually acceptable future date has been determined. The mediation may be continued by the mediator or the judge or magistrate who referred the case. Except as authorized by the court, the existence of pending motions shall not be good cause for a continuance and no continuance will be granted unless the mediation can be scheduled prior to the final pretrial. If a continuance of a scheduled mediation is requested and the proposed new date is within 60 days of the initial referral to mediation, then the request shall be made to the mediator. If the requested date is more than 60 days after the referral to mediation, then the request must be made to the judge or magistrate assigned to the case.

(12) Fees and Costs

The court may impose upon the parties fees and costs for mediation. If there is a fee for mediation, unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the mediation fees shall be shared equally. The court may waive fees and costs for an indigent party. Mediation shall not be ordered where a party is indigent unless the mediation is available at no cost to the party.

(13) Attendance; Sanctions

If any individual ordered by the court to attend mediation fails to attend mediation without good cause, the court may impose sanctions which may include, but are not limited to, the award of attorney's fees and other costs, contempt or other appropriate sanctions at the discretion of the assigned judge or magistrate.

(14) Evaluation, Comments, and Complaints

It is the policy of the court to use mediation to benefit the parties, to assist in reaching a resolution, and to provide a process that is timely and flexible that maintains the trust and confidence of the people. Any mediation participant may submit written comments, complaints or feedback regarding the performance of mediators receiving referrals from the court.
